HERMÈS RECEIVES THE 2022 BEST OVERALL TRANSPARENCY AWARD

Since 2009, The Grands Prix de la Transparence, now renamed Transparency Awards for this 13th edition, are granted in recognition of the quality of the regulated information of the SBF 120 companies under French law. The goal of these Awards is to allow issuers to measure their performance in transparency and identify the best practices every year.

Hermès International received the Best Overall Transparency Award on Monday 4 July 2022, at the top of all SBF 120 companies, after having been ranked at the 3rd position last year and won the “CAC Large 60” Award.

The Transparency Awards reward the accessibility, precision, comparability, availability and clarity of the information available in key public information sources of each company (Universal Registration Document, financial website, notice to appear at the general meeting). An independent scientific committee ensures an impartial and equitable assessment. The committee is made up of ten leading figures from bodies and associations that use these documents including Paris Europlace, Euronext, l'AMF, IFA, SFAF, AFG, F2ic.

This award recognises the work of all the Hermès teams that contribute to our regulated information material.

Faithful to the values of craftsman and the authenticity of its artisanal model, Hermès is committed to the pursuit of quality in all areas and has never ceased to reinvent itself in a spirit of continual improvement.

Since 1837, Hermès has remained faithful to its artisan model and its humanist values. The freedom to create, the constant search for beautiful materials, the transmission of savoir-faire of excellence, and the aesthetic of functionality all forge the singularity of Hermès, a house of objects created to last. An independent, family-owned company, Hermès is dedicated to keeping the majority of its production in France through its 52 workshops and production sites and to developing its network more than 300 stores in 45 countries. The group employs almost 17,600 people worldwide, including nearly 11,000 in France, among whom more than 6,000 are craftsmen*. Axel Dumas, a sixth-generation family member, has been Hermès CEO since 2013. Founded in 2008, the Fondation d'entreprise Hermès supports projects in the areas of artistic creation, training and the transmission of savoir-faire, biodiversity, and the preservation of the environment.
